

HEALTH NOTES

Journal and Courier

September 21, 2016

Free film showing of 'Someone You Love: The HPV Epidemic'

At 7 p.m. Thursday, the movie "Someone You Love: The HPV Epidemic" will be shown at Goodrich Wabash Landing 9, 300 E. State St., West Lafayette. The showing is co-sponsored by the Tippecanoe County Health Department and the League of Women Voters of Greater Lafayette. The film explores the lives of five women with cervical cancer. A panel discussion featuring doctors, cancer survivors and people touched by the effects of a loved one with cervical cancer will follow. For more information on the League of Women Voters, call 765-336-0935 or visit leaguelafayette.org.